Editorial

My apologies to the readers of this newsletter for being two months late with this issue.

I suffered a sudden downturn in health in mid October and while most of the material was to hand, I had no inclination to operate the computer until after

Christmas when an unexpected package arrived from the Wilson family and suddenly it was go... and in five days Issue

16 was complete with an overrun for Issue

17 which will be produced on schedule-

COPY DATE FEBRUARY 8-pre AGM issue.

Apart from my usual contributors-Pat,

Jennifer and Andy, a big thank you also to

Eric Stapleton, Jane Gosling, Roger Wilson,

Brian Eady and Ian Cartwright. Some items that were intended for Issue 16 should be in Issue 17 or even later.

I have been asked to include the following:

Experienced local volunteers are required to help with the 'Two hour sailing experience' programme operated by the yard-contact Christine Taylor, see page 2 of the 2003 Yard brochure, you are the skipper!

Keep sending in the much appreciated

e-mails and letters and photos.

IMPORTANT You know that you intend to be a member in 2004, make Jennifer's and your life easier by renewing your subscription now with a Bankers

Order-write to her requesting form, SA6

-thank you.

Wishing you a happy sailing year.
